bardment was very heavy. Houses were being struck by shrapnel and collapsing every minute. While their papers were being examined in front of the colonel's headquarters a shell of the colonel's headquarters as hell of the burst directly overhead, but as soon as the noise subsided the colonel conas the noise subsided the colonel touch GLADSTONE HAS ing their way through Senlis, Amiens and Boulogne, owing to the disappear ance of sign posts and the refusal of the peasants to give them any information. One place they passed had been taken and retaken six times by small band of from 200 to 300 men. the French and Germans, and conse- Many of these have been deluded and quently the inhabitants feared to give misled or bought by German gold. The them directions on the ground that number is triffing.

line the fighting still continues severe. The Germans to-day made a strong attack on Malancourt, northwest of Verdun, which, however was unsuccessful. The French have even made some progress here, and also in Alsace, despite the desperate German efforts to have arrived in the region of Roye to the German dead on the battlefield, where they have been lying for three weeks. The firemen brought a large supply of disinfectants with them in order to lessen the danger of contracting disease in handling the bodies. On the battlefield, it is said, there are

Paris, Oct. 16.-The official communications issued by the War Office 2-day indicate a continued forward lovement of the Allies in France, par-

No Chance for Outflanking.

With both the belligerent lines reaching to the sea there now can be no attempts at outflanking by either army. To win success one or the other of the opponents must break through the line, and the army having the greatest number of men and the ability to move them to a chosen point seemingle has the better charge in the seemingle has the better charge.

FAITH IN BOERS

"The wrongness and treachery this desertion have already brought doubters to their bearings. Through-out the Union the Boers have rallied General Botha.

"The Boer commandoes, who helped to keep the peace in the recent indus-trial disturbances, are marching against the Germans, side by side with the men they were called upon to kee in order. The British and Dutch, wh hold them or force them back.

A large number of Paris firemen a common determination to preserve equipped with a sort of oxygen helmet the integrity of their country.

German Methods Hated.

"German methods, ideas and mili-tarism are utterly repugnant to the Dutch farmers. After the Boer war some of the Boers went to the assistance of the Germans in their war with the Herreros. This caused some un-ensiness to the British authorities; but the Boers returned home with nothing but condemnation of the German methods, and they made their views known broadcast.

"Even though disaffection with the British action existed appreciably in South Africa. there is no reason for supposing that the Boers would in any conceivable circumstances have sought and the supposition of the suppositio been preparing against that time.

The Germans, it is believed here, are certain to try to make a breach in the certain to try to make the government will prosent, and the government will present, and the government will present will have the assistance of British warships, but it is unlikely that these vessels will bombard German forces of British CRUISER HAWKE, SUNK BY A GERMAN 15,000, ALL LEFT OF SUBMARINE.

BRITISH CRUISER U. S. Navy Men Say Autumn

mber, 1914, by Captain Hugh P.

Hawke Sank in 8 Minutes;

Boats Useless, Say Rescued.

this war the armies fight less for positions than for lines of communication, the Germans are striking for the outer railway system, now in French hands, which runs from Paris through Amiens and Arras to Hazebrouck junction, and there to Calais and the coast.

Repulse Germans' Attacks.

Thus far, according to the French reports, the Allies have repulsed every attempt of the Germans to achieve this object and now have them pressed well back from the threatened railway.

Yesterday the Germans made another attempt to recapture Arras under cover of darkness, but, after several hours of violent artillery and rife.

"My answer to that is that you, as a light of the decrease of the counts are being liberally extended."
Concerning the matter of America's and the ways of paying it, Sir George said:
"My estimate will he ways of paying it, Sir George said:
"My estimate will he based upon an examination of conditions here durating the last week or ten days, while I have been travelling."

Will England insist on gold in paying the boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the boats we lowered were on the boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the cruiser, but she keeled over on her beam ends, and so all of the boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the cruiser. The boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the cruiser of the cruiser, but she keeled over on her beam ends, and so all of the cruiser. The boats we lowered were on her beam ends, and so all of the cruiser, but she were of the cruiser of the cruiser. The c

I, along with others who were in the engine room, was sent flying into space and was stunned for a time. When I came to my senses I found myself in the midst of what must be described as an absolute inferno. One of the cylinders of the engine had been completely wrecked, and the steam was pletely wrecked, and the steam was passing out in dense, scalding clouds. The horror of the situation was increased when the tank of oil fuel caught fire and the flames advanced with frightful rapidity. Seeing that there was not the ghost of a chance of the cerman Embassy it was intimered was not the ghost of a chance of the cerman Embassy it was intimered was not the ghost of a chance of the cerman Embassy it was intimered that the view of the Cerman Embassy it was intimed that the view of the Cerman Embassy it was intimered that the view of the Cerman Embassy it was intimered that the view of the Cerman Embassy it was intimered that the view of the Cerman Embassy it was intimered that the view of the Cerman Embassy it was intimered that the view of the Cerman Embassy it was intimered that the view of the Cerman Embassy it was intimered that the view of the Cerman Embassy it was intimered that the view of the Cerman Embassy it was intimered that the view of the Cerman Embassion of what restrictions might be laid upon this practice. The State Department recently took the ground that merchant vessels, even under neutral flags, could not legally carry supplies from American Atlantic ports to the German Embassador as a constant of the control o such a situation, that the commanders and officers were on the bridge, and as calmly as if we were on fleet maneuvres orders were given and as calmly obeyed. The buglers sounded a call which summoned every man to his post. During the first minute or two many believed that all that was wrong was a bailer explosion, but the rampity was a boiler explosion, but the rapidity with which the cruiser was taking water on the starboard side quickly disabused all minds of this belief. Realizing the actual situation, the commander gave orders to close all the watertight doors. Soon after that came overboard to help those clinging to the wreckage, but many of the men were seen to sink."

Fogs Now Favor Submarines.

Continued from page 1

1891, is the British cruiser which was in collision with the White Star liner Olympic on September 20, 1911, near Osborne Bay, on the north side of the Isle of Wight. She sustained serious damage.

She was of 7,350 tons displacement, 360 feet long, of 60 feet beam and drew twenty-three feet of water. She was a sister ship of the Edgar, Endymion, Grafton, Theseus and Gibraltar. Her armsment consisted of two 9.2-inch guns, ten 6-inch guns, twelve 6-pounders, five 3-pounders, two machine guns and two torpedo tubes. Her comharm to a blockading fleet.

The thick fogs that are to be expected at this season in Northern waters, the numerous coastal islands, with their deep channels affording easy with their deep channels affording easy refuge and hiding places for the submarines, and the protection which the submarine bases enjoy through the extensive mine field planted by the Germans are declared by the experts here to make conditions ideal for the employment of submarines.

Pritish probably would find some com-pensation in the dense North Sea fogs y utilizing them to mask their "cut-ng out" operations against the Ger-an mine field.

SAYS GERMANS GET COAL FROM MANILA

British Ambassador Lays Evidence Before State

back from the threatened railway.
Yesterday the Germans ande another attempt to recapture Arras under cover of darkness, but, after several hours of violent artillery and rifle ire, the French were left in possession of all their positions.

The Germans are said to be sending further reinforcements from Germany to attiflent their lines and enable them to resume the offensive. The French are reported to have offered successful resistance to the Germans advance on the River Meuse at St. Mihiel.

All this is drawn from French sources, as the Germans have been more silent than usual concerning the operations in the west.

Have British Warships' Aid.

There have been no reports of fighting south of the Bruges-Ghent line, which is taken to mean that the forces which opposed the Germans around Ghent have been drawn southward to join hands with their main body.

An allied force fighting on the coast with frightful rapidity. Seeing that there was not the ghost of a chance of doing any good by remaining in what was obviously a death trap, I determined to make a dash for it. I scrambled up the iron ladder to the main deck.

"All this had happened in less time than it takes to tell, but such is British pluck and coolness and nerve, even in such a situation, that the commanders supplied with coal shipped from Atlan-

FIND GERMAN FORT

22 of Kaiser's Subjects Arrested in Heavy Con-

Foreigners Forbidden to Leave City, Where Water Supply

HOUSE IS LOOTED

Few Belgians Remaining Are Mostly Old Men, Women and Children.

Is Still Cut Off.

EX-BURGOMASTER'S

London, Oct. 17 .- "The Daily Chronicle" correspondent at Amsterdam tele graphed last night:

The German efforts to induce the refugees to return to Antwerp are meeting with but little success, as Burgomaster Frank advises them to wait twelve days while he endeavors to make favorable terms for them.

Brussels, where a party of refugees. all over fifty years old, has already gone to consult with the military gov-

Only 15,000 of the original inhabit-

Missionary Says "Hell Is Let Loose" in Northern Rhodesia.

scribing the situation on the borders of German East Africa. Writing on August 26, Dr. Wareham said: "The Germans are now enrolling the Rugaruga, that old fighting and raiding and now to these are added the Rugapeans, as my native soldiers will massacre them all."

Twelve days later Dr. Wareham pected to come on for some days. They took the Chungas village at Kalambe, killed seven people, who were defenceless, and captured eleven women, whom they took to German East Africa. They they took to German East Africa. They burned a part of the village and took all the food. On Friday they and another band approached Abercorn, and on Saturday attacked the place. They were driven off, but they captured several more women and cruelly murdered two children and a woman at the stream by Abercorn. They then left and a part of them went to Mpandala, six miles from Kawimbe, attacked the village and killed several. When last heard of they were making for Kawimbe and the villages on the way, of course.

these wars the natives are not brought into the row, but the Germans here are ignoring all the rules of civilized war. They have enrolled natives by the hundreds and have encouraged them to burn and kill, etc. The result is that though the authorities have done

PARISIANS GET USED

the Polo Player.

ANTWERP'S 300,000

London to-day from Paris on his way to New York. He says:

"The inhabitants of Paris are returning by hundreds, and with characteristic French adaptability have apparently grown used even to aeroplanes, which dropped eighteen bombs and killed four people and injured fifteen. They just shrugged their shoulders and walked on. The Bois de Boulogne and the Place de l'Opéra were crowded with people.

"The man in the street believes the Germans will never return to the environs of Paris, and an attempt is being made to revive the normal Paris life of business and pleasure. Maxims life of business and

AMERICANS' PASS

The negotiations will take place at Irvin S. Cobb and J. T. Mc-Cutcheon Tell of Germans' Kindness.

Antwerp and children.

Antwerp is being held by 15,000 Germans, including a large contingent of sallors. So far there have been no excesses in the city, but the house of exBurgomaster de Vos has been plundered, whether by roughs or soldiers are recorded.

German army in the west under the sailors. So far there have been no excesses in the city, but the house of exBurgomaster de Vos has been plundered, whether by roughs or soldiers is unknown.

Before the Germans entered the city a huge supply of grain was safely sentaway.

There is not a Belgian soldier now left in Belgium. Those who escaped to France have joined the Allies.

Communication between Antwerp and Brussels is maintained by a motor car service only, the railways still being useless.

Those foreigners who are still in Antwerp have been forbidden to leave, but the German order that, all house in the city must be kept open day and night has now been withdrawn.

The water supply of the city is still cut off and there are no trolley cars running.

GERMANS INCITE

German army in the west under the protection of a special pass signed by the Kaiser and escorted by Captain and fired Mannesmann, of the General Staff, who had been detailed to act as their guide. While at the front they met and were entertained by General Staff, who had been detailed to act as their guide. While at the front they met and were entertained by General Office had a big surprise to apring upon strict came the Germans, and that secrecy and strict censorship were necessary.

E. C. Grenfell, the London represent-won Heeringen and General con Zhewl, but only after they had promised that where these meetings took place and under what particular circumstances would not be revealed for a month, once we have particular circumstances where these meetings took place and under what particular circumstances where these meetings took place and under what particular circumstances where these meetings took place and under what particular circumstances where these meetings took place and under what particular circumstances where these meetings took place and under what particular circumstances where these meetings took place and under what particular circumstances where the or man have the german order that, all houses in the city must be kept open d it it was to go in no other way. It was when the German authorities med to realize that the war was being waged in the press of neutral countries almost entirely by their enemies that we became persona grate. Shortly before that we had been arrested six miles from Maubeuge while making our way on foot to the battle going on at that place. For a time we were interned at Aix-la-Chapelle. Then came the welcome attentions which made a right front possible.

"In all my travels in the theatre of made a right front possible.

"In all my travels in the theatre of war I have seen no atrocties committed by either side. I have seen men led away to execution, but only after the rough and ready justice of a drumhead court martial had been administered. Germany is full of stories of German Red Cross nurses slashed by Begians, but I saw nothing such as would prove these charges, and I visited hospitals looking for such cases. "The German people, as a whole, are cheerful and confident. They are subscribing to the war loan generously; they are proud of their army, which is a magnificent, inspiring lighting maa magnificent, inspiring fighting ma-chine, and they are not being clated with false news, for it seems that the German press bureau has minimized, rather than exaggerated, on the principle that thus no explanations are af-

"Hell is let loose, and no one can what is going to happen. When I wrote you last we were about to leave to do and why we wanted to do it. All Kawimbe. We left last Tuesday, and the German force was then about ten miles from Abercorn, but was not exmiles from Abercorn, but was not expected to come on for some days. They have the come on for some days. They have the come of German is all classes of Germans is Hatred in all classes of Germans is greater against England than against either France or Russia, and one sometimes hears that Germany is fighting Russian barbarism, French hatred and

FRENCH LURE FOE ON NEAR VERDUN

Renewed Conflict Marked by Deadly Meetings of Opposing Armies.

the hundreds and have encouraged them to burn and kill, etc. The result is that though the authorities have done all that they could to keep the natives of the country out of it they have been compelled to call our people out. The fiery cross has gone through the land. The Amambwa and Awemba have been told to come to the aid of the English, and they are flocking in, delighted to get a chance to burn and kill."

IBy Cable to The Tribune!

London, Oct. 16. A Berlin dispatch received here says the conflict raging around Verdun is full of unprecedent-ed cunning. The ground is furiously disputed. The French have adopted tactics totally different from those usually practised. At first they pretend to evacuate the forests and woodance. Then they open fire from amouscades and from behind trees, where their mitrailleuses are situated. The their mitrailleuses are situated. The dead are innumerable. As the French do not possess heavy

TO AEROPLANE RAIDS

As the French do not possess heavy artillery of the German type, and consequently are unable to resist effectively the German guns, they occupy from time to time advanced positions with their field batteries, and after discharging a speedy fire immediately change positions without giving the German troops sufficient time to fix a target.

the Polo Player.

[By Cable to The Tribune.]

London, Oct. 16. Harry La Montagne, the polo player and brother-in-manent exploration staff, whose duty law of President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University, reached

IN LONDON SUBURB KAISER TRIED TO TURN BRITAIN AGAINST U. S.

BIG BRITISH SECRET TO SURPRISE KAISER

—Morgan at Pier.

The White Star liner Olympic, with 966 passengers, arrived here last night from Glasgow. She was expected to dock this morning, but having made a legislan stamps are being used sprance.

The French Minister to Belgian ments which reads: "Legation of France attached to the Belgian government at Havre." Belgian stamps are being used to provide the provide the provided that the provided the provided that the provide London, Oct. 16.-Irvin S. Cobb and time to land her passengers, docking at not alone hard to get news, but almost impossible to send it when obtained. He said he believed the British War Office had a big surprise to spring upon the Germans, and that secrecy and strict censorship were necessary.

E. C. Grenfell, the London representative of the Morgan interests, came over on the Olympic. He was a fellow

R. Grace and Mr. and Mrs. Rodman Wanamaker.

Register! Register!! Register!!:

Positively the last chance. So far registration has been below what it should have been. Many have neglected their duty. Have you? If so gratering the second series are a grant to the second series and the second series are ready against them, to Rouen and Have. If they could seize either or half of the second series are ready against them. duty. Have you? If so, get your name they could seize either or both of they on the books at once.

said:
"The representatives of the Unix States and Spain, carrying out is special mission, remained in the law od territory. These and the representatives of all civilized countries, remained the legality of the Belgian governent in exercising its sovereignty of the property of the property of the second secon brilliant with French, Belgian and Brish uniforms. The streets are crosed with horse drawn equipages a automobiles. The members of the clomatic corps are lodged in one of thotels of the city.

TO PARIS BY HAVRE PLAN OF GERMANS

Paris, Oct. 16.— The opinion of a he authority throws a possible light me the obscurity left by the official Fraction of the separation, the Germans have by a means relinquished the hope of ething Paris, but, after their experies of the route via Complegne and the repulse on the Marne, they have an econceived another plan.

B. Altman & Co.

An Exhibition of Autumn and Winter Fashions

for Misses, Debutantes and Young Girls is now being held in the new Exhibition Room on the Fourth Floor (Madison Avenue addition).

tic modes in dress for all occasions, including evening, luncheon, shopping, motor and sports garments.

Millinery, Gloves, Shoes and Hosiery, reflecting the latest styles, are among the accessories featured in the Exhibit.

B. Altman & Co.

A Very Unusual Sale of Men's Wear is now being held wear, Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Scarfs, Umbrellas, Walking Sticks, Overcoats, Sweaters, Hats and Shoes.

Also Special Sales of Young Men's Suits and Boys' Suits, Overcoats, Bath Robes and Wool Sweaters.

offering extraordinary price advantages.

Fifth Avenue - Madison Avenue

When the party arrived the bom-nothing had happened. The Americans had difficulty in find-

On the eastern section of the Allies' between 4,000 and 5,000 bodies.

movement of the Allies in France, particularly along the France-Belgian border. They have occupied La Ventie, a town east of Estaires, the place captured yesterday after the Germans had been routed. La Ventie is in the direction of Lille.

It is not indicated in the communications at what point of the coast the Allies' fighting line reaches the sea, but the nearest point is twenty-two miles from Ypres and close to the frontier. This, however, is much nearfrontier. This, however, is much nearfrontier to Dunkirk than to Ostend, which er to Dunkirk than to Ostend the Erica than the order to the total content of German and enough of German and enough of German culture

Allies' fighting line reaches the sea, but the nearest point is twenty-two miles from Ypres and close to the frontier. This, however, is much nearest to Dunkirk than to Ostend, which the Germans are reported to have occupied to-day.

The presumption, based on knowledge of the German movements, is that the line of the Allies is in a more northerly direction, and consequently is nearer thirty than twenty miles in length. The line would seem to be a length to would seem to be a length the line would seem to be a length to would seem to be a length the line would seem to be a length to would seem to be a length the line would seem to be a length to would seem to be a length

Lord & Taylor

The Men's Section on the Street Floor (38th St. Entrance) offers

To be found in the city at

Usual prices $6.00 to $7.00 The "Cordwainer"

The "Myrod"

tan tops......

Fifth Avenue, 38th Street, 39th Street

The Largest and Most Representative Men's High Grade Shoes

$3.95 & $4.85

The best wearing shoe ever produced.
Usually $8.00

(Registered in United States Patent Office.) Exclusive to Lord & Taylor—a revelation in footwear. Black, gray or occupying Ostend or other coast towns, for it would mean the destruction of the towns without the gaining of any

AFRICAN RAIDERS

London, Oct. 16. F. H. Hawkins, foreign secretary of the London Missionary Society, has received from Dr. H. E. Wareham, one of the society's medical missionaries, stationed at Kawimbe,

SIGNED BY KAISER War Office Aided by Censorship, Says Blythe, in on Olympic

Only 15,000 of the original inhabitants, more than 300,000, are left in Antwerp, and these are mostly old men and women and children.

Antwerp is being held by 15,000 Germany via Holland. They said that the time had come for all correspondents, including a large contingent of mans, including a lar

The models displayed present the authencomprising Shirts, Pajamas, Under-